I giggled today because of a memory I had with Gina. We were best friends in elementary school (more like family) but went separate ways after. So walking into the service and seeing childhood photos I remembered in the house on Clower was nostalgic. Leon may not remember but he gave me, my brother, and my sister along with David and Gina each 20 dollars and took us to Winns and let us get whatever we wanted. I knew if my mom knew we accepted the money we would get in so much trouble. Lol I expressed this Gina and she said “So don’t tell her.” Lol easy as that. I forgot how fearless she was but hearing the stories at the service reminded that Gina hadn’t changed over the years. Still fearless. Still funny. Still farting! Lol. It makes me wish we had stayed close like we were as kids. We balanced well in hindsight. Still think about you, girl. -Destiny

“ Gina was an excellent nurse. She was kind, comforting, and compassionate. Never did a patient complain about the care Gina delivered. Just a really great nurse and friend! We all miss Gina terribly, and will keep her in our thoughts... Never to be forgotten. With love, Carrie
