“ PICTURE
17May2024

*Written notes in a tiny square on the calendar so we won't forget.
Months, days, and years marked to remind us of one thing or another.*

Cell phones filled with daily thoughts from past, present, and future commands.

Stationary, not moving or changing until executed; and maybe repopulated once more.

Drawing a line across, deleting, or crumbling may, or may not be the end of it.

My mind is strong right now; and at this moment in time; it does not need conjuring by any means.

So, I write this because my thoughts and memories of you will last an eternity or until I die.

*My love for you; and my bond with you wherever I go and what ever
I do will always be unscathed.*

Mirror images to others; and differences were our fingerprints we marked along the way.

When I pray the rosary and the lord's prayer, I will think of you because I know your love was pure.

When I hear the word taco it is "tacito" from you. I recall the Americano was your favorite from Starbucks.

When I see your family, I will know they are loved by you from heaven. I know you are praying for us from above too.

Those brown shoes I saw when I went shopping would have been ones you'd like.

Walking briskly at the trail, zoo, or downtown were things you enjoyed like the morning jogging we used to make; and with our sister Diane.

All those gatherings, birthday parties, and dinners will never be the same without you.

Keeping my cell phone at my side knowing you'd call to say hello; or how our days are coming along.

Reading my poems; you never critiqued but rather enjoyed, yet you were a very honest human being.

How you enjoyed being with others and loved making people feel special were your beautiful qualities.
It wasn't just the presentation of the buffet, or the setting of the table, but the people you loved to share with; and make them feel at home.
My memories are bright and lengthy of you, a picture of you will always be a masterpiece in my mind, and heart.

Love you,
Happy Birthday,
Your twin sister, Gloria

“ This is the poem I would like to share. I would also like to share what Aunt Gladys meant to me.

*I brought flowers down from heaven.
I put them at your door.
A reminder that I'm with you,
today and forever more.*

*I danced in fields of love,
so you'd feel me in your heart.
A reminder that I'm with you,
and we are not apart.*

*I sang to the tune called memories,
so you could join in too.
A reminder that I'm with you,
and that I never left you.*

*I met you in your dreams,
so you could smile again.
A reminder that I'm with you,
to try to ease your pain.*

*I whispered in the wind,
blew a kiss upon your face.
A reminder that I'm with you
in every single place.*

I'll close my eyes and sleep.
I'll meet you in my dreams
in a moment we can keep.

I'll meet you with a hug
and with things I want to say.
I'll meet you under the sun
or a different place each day.

I'll meet you by the river

*or back at our old home.
And at the times I cannot find you
In my dreams i shall still roam.*

*I'll meet you in the coffee shop
or at your favourite place.
I don't care just where it is as long as I see your face.*

*I'll meet you at a park
so you can watch the children play.
You can take their laughter
back to heaven every day.*

*I'll meet you on each birthday
we no longer get to share.
I don't care just where it is
but I'll meet you there.*

*I'll meet you in the sunshine
or in the pouring rain.
I will walk through any storm
just to see you again.*

*I will meet you in my thoughts
a million times a day,
along with every memory
I am lucky to replay.*

“ We remember Gladys as a smart, kind, talented, yet humble and soft spoken sister in law.

Gladys with my brother John, and their children, David, Patrick and Frances, graciously hosted many family get-togethers with great food and attentive service.

Our sincere condolences and prayers go to her family and friends that knew her well.

The world is a sadder place with the loss of such a beautiful soul but her memory will be with us always.

Rest in peace.
