

Gladys Garrett

August 9, 1928 - January 7, 2021

Gladys Irene Lyssy Garrett was born August 9, 1928, in San Antonio, Texas, and grew up in Port Arthur, Texas. Beloved mother, wife, and friend, she went to be with our Lord on January 7, 2021.

Gladys and husband, Charles, raised their three daughters in San Antonio while working for Hermann Sons. They enjoyed square dancing and playing bridge with friends. She was a member of Vineta Lodge and Beethoven Maennerchor. Gladys (GG) was a devout Lutheran and had many interests and talents. She loved and enjoyed her family, her many friends, attending the symphony and plays, volunteering at the Majestic theater, and deeply appreciated music. She sewed the family's clothing for years, crafted, was a voracious reader, and was quite an elegant lady.

She is predeceased by her parents, Ben B. and Anola Bauer Lyssy, her husband, Charles T. Garrett, Jr., her brother and sister-in-law Howard and Mary Lyssy, and her daughter and granddaughter, Paula and Amy Barber.

She is survived by her daughters, Terri Garrett-Matlock and Suzi Garrett; her sons and daughter-in-law, Clifton Barber, Jimmy Matlock, and Maureen Llanas; her granddaughters, Amber Ferrand (D.J.), Afton Ferrand (Carlos), and Irene Matlock; her grandsons, John and Jimmy Matlock, and Aiden and Jaxon Llanas Garrett; her nephew, Mike Lyssy (Denise), and her great-grandson, Mark Ferrand.

The family thanks her church family at Good News Lutheran, Anthony Elsworth, Heide Regalado, Cecilia Gemblar, and Julee Hodge for their love and support, as well as her caregivers, Elizabeth Suah Hudson, Delia Cardenas, Kimberly Edgar, and the folks at Heritage Place of Boerne and Alamo Hospice for their compassionate care.

GG leaves a legacy of faith, generosity, and love. She will be profoundly missed.

In lieu of flowers donations may be made to your local foodbank or charity of choice.

“ I loved your mom. She was such a truly kind and caring person. Her beautiful smile, the sparkle of light in her eyes. She was a pleasure to be with, we had many long conversations, about all kinds of things. She had a strong Faith in God, and Christ, and a Deep Appreciation for His Word the Holy Bible. But, never displayed a haughty or judgemental attitude. My favorite memory, was eating enchiladas with her, then seeing Shawn Phillips together! The best "date" I ever had. She was, to me, like my own mother I miss her, and y'all. Love tom landers.
