

Glenda Kay Bryan

October 16, 1936 - October 15, 2015

Glenda Kay Bryan
1936-2015

San Antonio — Glenda Kay Bryan, longtime resident of San Antonio, left this world on October 15 to be with her Heavenly Father. Born in Sagerton, Texas, Glenda was the only child of Reece and Frances Clark. She is preceded in death by her parents; her first husband, Teddie Terrell; and her husband of thirty-six years, Pete Bryan, who passed away only a few months earlier.

She is survived by her daughter, Kay Tonnon, and grandchildren Chelsea and Brian Tonnon, of the Dallas area. Also by her son, Clark Terrell and his wife Mary, and grandchildren Iris and Emma Terrell of San Antonio.

Glenda enjoyed meeting new people, gardening, watching wildlife in her backyard, and had an enormous love for animals of all kinds. She cherished being a homemaker and enjoyed volunteering at local animal shelters later in life.

Memorial donations may be made to the Sagerton Cemetery Fund c/o Joyce LeFevre, Sagerton TX 79548 or to any no-kill animal shelter.