“ I was Glenda and Tom's pastor at Salem Sayers Baptist Church from October 1956 until January 1958. They were neighbors who lived closed to the church property and they were faithful, committed, and active members of the church. More than that, there were personals friends to me, to my wife, Evelyn. They took special interest in our two little boys, Richard and Kenneth. We still have pictures of little Tommy and Patty pulling our boys in a little red wagon.

We will always tressure the devotion to God and to the church family that Glenda and Tom demonstrated. They were learners and their were doers. They were caring people who enriched our lives of all our family. Thank you for sharing them with us for a little lwhile. -- Maurice and Evelyn Smith, 116 Ann Street, New Braunfels, TX 78130 (830) 608-1152

“ Craig and family and Patty and family, I give you my deepest condolences. Your mother was very special to a great many of us from Houston Terrace Baptist through the years we all gathered there. I spent many a hour visiting with her and Tommy in my younger years. Listened to many a story by each of them around lunch on Sundays after church and many a church fellowships.

She no longer has to long for her forever home.....and I can't imagine the celebrations that have taken place with those gone before her that met her upon her arrival. She meant a very great deal to me as woman of God and I'll forever hold her close to my heart.

Peace and grace be with you all as you go this home going of such a great woman of God.

“ Craig and family and Patty and family, looks like your mother wanted to spend Easter in the wonderful presence of our Lord this year! Know that she's happy to see your dad and all family loved ones and friends there. She will be missed and remembered with lots of love.

“ Patty and Tommy and your families. I was saddened to hear about your sweet mother's passing. I have known Mr and Mrs. Bryson for many, many years. They were some of my parents' (Andy & Charlotte Sylvester) best friends. So many fun stories they had to tell around the table while playing 42, drinking coffee and of course, there was always dessert. They also all had in common being long time and loyal members of Houston Terrace Baptist Church serving in many capacities. When your mother was the director of the Day Care and School, my 2 sons were enrolled in that wonderful Christian based school. That was a huge part of their upbringing and my youngest son age 2 at the time) hung onto your mother's skirt because he thought she was my mother. I could go on and on of the wonderful memories that I keep in my heart of your sweet mom and your dad who always had something funny to say.

Know that you are all grieving the loss of your wonderful and loving mother, but know that she's at home now with her Heavening Father forever (and I bet there's a big reunion taking place with my parents in Heaven)... brings a smile to my face of that thought.

Sending deepest sympathy and Christian love to each of you. Cathy McKeown
