“ It is with great sadness that we lost such a fine friend. It was wonderful to hear her share her life in Central America. She was such a generous person and loved cooking her recipes for us. She was part of our St. Jude Novena for years until she could not drive any more. We will surely miss her. Our prayers and sympathy to the family. Virginia and Jesse Garza

“ To my beautiful Auntie. Thank you for your teachings, our laughs, our tears, your stories, your love, and our time together. I love you and miss you extremely. Until we meet again.

“Gloria was a great friend of many years. She worked at IAGS with my husband and was very well respected and loved. After retirement we continued being friends and had a ladies birthday group, that later included the husbands and friends living in San Antonio. We had wonderful times, year after year! Everything comes to an end and the few of us left will miss her! She always included all of us in her prayers and for that I am very grateful. Rest In Peace dear Gloria.
