

Gloria Harrington

July 21, 1930 - March 11, 2005

HARRINGTON

Surrounded by her family, Gloria Ann Patty” Harrington entered eternal rest March 11, 2005. Gloria was preceded in death by her parents, Emily and E.S. Johnson, and granddaughter, Julie Holveck.

Gloria is survived by her loving husband of fifty seven years, G.E. “Ed” Harrington; her children: Linda Kirks and husband Jerry, Cynthia Holveck, and Mark Harrington and wife Heidi; five grandchildren: Jennifer Asher, Christopher Holveck, Amy Meridith, Jessica Harrington, Blake Harrington and several great-grandchildren.

After raising her three children, Gloria started college and graduated from U.T.S.A. with a B.S. and received a M.S. in Gerontology from Trinity University. With a grant she developed the Fixed Income Consumer Counseling Center for elders. She finished her career opening Humana Women’s Hospital as the Director of Volunteers and Social Services where she established programs for long stay, antepartum patients and a unique bereavement program for parents faced with fetal deaths.

Gloria and Ed enjoyed many years of traveling, served as leaders for over 30 years in Beacon Hill Presbyterian Church and served the City of San Antonio during Ed’s tenure on City Council and numerous other committees and appointments.

After ten years of severe medical difficulties, Gloria now joins other family members in the Lord’s loving arms.
