“ May she rest in peace with Jesus. She was a wonderful neighbor here in San Antonio and always great with my family, especially letting them play with her granddaughters at her home. I will miss our conversations and her friendly smile.

“ My sincere condolences to the Hemby family.
Gloria was such a wonderful woman what a priviledge it has been to know her and her family. Gloria never had a bad word or thought about anyone. She always made me feel like part of the family. When Sherri and I would go to visit her she would always be outside with a big smile waiting for us. Gloria I will miss you very much it was and still is my pleasure to know you. Thank you for all your kindness and caring love we all miss you very much.
