“ One of my favorite funny memories I have with Gloria is the time she went with my brother Dimitri and I to Virginia. We met with Rachel and went to Washington D.C. we were going to the train and one of the employees told us “hey don’t forget grandma back there” referring to Gloria. From that point on it had always been a continuous joke that she was our other grandma. I love you Gloria, and I thank you for the big hugs you always gave me.

“ What can I say about Gloria that you don't already know? She helped raised all of us, helped in any way she could. Never asked for anything from anyone. Gloria was that aunt that you could talk to if you for in trouble with your mom and needed to let it out. She never judged and would give whatever heart felt advice she can think of. I got to spend time with her a week before she went to rest, and no matter what she was feeling, sad, in pain, worried, she never showed it. She was happy to see me and welcomed me as always and we sat there chatting about the Spurs and what shes been up to. Rest easy Tia, Thank You
