“ Gloria's smile always brightened the halls of Independence Hill. She was my mother's neighbor, and a friend to all of us. We always admired her gusto in walking the halls for exercise. She was perky and spunky and inspired us all. As a fellow military comptroller, thank you for your service to our servicemembers! Our condolences go out to your family. We will miss you, Gloria! May you rest in peace.

“ Sending my Aunt Gloria lots of love as she departs our world to be united with her family in Heaven. My memory of her that has stayed with me is her happiness as a young woman decorating the family's Christmas Tree with her sisters. She was a beautiful person always joyous with a smile that made everyone happy. Via con Dios Aunt Gloria.
