Our deepest condolences to your family. You are in our prayers. My son Joshua Martinez held your mom in the highest regards and considers you as family. He would enjoy talking to your mom so much she always made him feel welcome in your home. So it is with heavy hearts that we share your pain and sorrow especially after losing my mother Dec. 2020. Sincerely Joshua Martinez, mom Mary Ann Luna and family.

“ To my Lucy,

It was my honor to care for you these years. I made a promise to you that I would be with you from the beginning til the end of your fight.

As you wished I brought you home to care for you, to take your last breath surrounded by Dad, my sisters and family. I know you could hear us when we talked to you, by the faces and smiles you gave us. Calling out for Dad to make sure he was by your side, which he was faithfully. I played you a poem, promised you that I would take care of Dad. I let you know if you were ready to go to God's kingdom you can go.

You took your last breath and I knew you were free, peaceful and watching over us now from heaven.

Not a day goes by that I look for the ladybugs, butterflies and the wind chimes, like what we talked about to let me know you are with me.

I love you Lucy til we meet again in heaven.
