“ Aunt Gloria was a kind hearted lady to say the least. There are things that make me think of her even to this day. Like all the plants she had, they were everywhere. I especially remember the Orange Morning Glory’s growing around the old water well in the back yard. I would play for hours out there. Sometimes I would even be a little ornery a run around to the front just to ring her door bell. She would always tell me “stop ringing that door bell or I’m going to get you with the flyswatter”... I knew she wouldn't hurt a fly much less me. She just wanted to make me think she was gonna get me but all she ever did was swat at the air.

I hope her and my Mamaw are keeping each other company in Heaven. She will truly be missed...
