“ I remember Mrs. Reedy as a really nice lady when I was a good friend of her son Joe back in high school and college. She was a really nice lady who took us down to Port A one weekend. Condolences to the family. Sorry for the loss.

“ It was my pleasure to meet Ann's Mom at a baby shower for her infant granddaughter, Julia, in Louisiana. She was thoughtful and intelligent and a good conversationalist. She was an amazing Mom to have raised three very successful children by herself. I actually got to be with her a few other times but know from her daughter, Ann, that she was a good Mother and Grandmother even to the very end of her life. I pray comfort for the family during this time especially.
