"Mothers hold their children's hands for a short while, but their hearts forever."
Gloria Lara Vásquez was born in Floresville, Texas, on September 3, 1944, to parents Mateo Muñoz Lara and Petra Barrera Lara. She went home to be with the Lord Our Savior on April 29, 2015. On May 9, 1970, she married the love of her life, Antonio Castillo Vásquez, and had four children and two grandchildren. Her two daughters are Norma Jean Vásquez and Angie Marie Vásquez. Her two sons are Antonio L. Vásquez and Daniel L. Vásquez; her two grandchildren are Samantha Amparo Vásquez and Devin Daniel Vásquez. Gloria also had four sisters, Olga Luna, Oralia Vásquez, Odelia Vásquez, and Hilda Robledo; and three brothers, José Lara, David Lara, and the late Rudolfo Lara. In addition, she is survived by numerous nephews and nieces, and Hermanas y Hermanos from La Capilla del Pueblo Church, where she was a long active member. Gloria LOVED the Lord very much. She prayed every day for everybody, for every member of her family and her church. Gloria is loved and will be greatly missed.
