“ To the Williams and Trevino families:

I send my love and prayers to the pride and joy of Gloria's life. You, her family! She was my family too and a precious sister in Christ. What a faithful prayer warrior she was, and I know those prayers were and are being heard by our loving Heavenly Father. "Glo" was so dear and precious to me, and I will keep and treasure her memory in my heart. We became fast friends and buddies when I was transferred to the AF Manpower Agency at Randolph in 2002. She was the matriarch and shining light of our division. Always a great listener and a confidant. We shared each other's joys and sorrows. She was a proud Aggie wife as I was an Aggie mom. Always asking about my son and my family and lifting up prayers for all.

It broke my heart to miss her memorial service. Was attending a family reunion with my mother, and I know she wouldn't have wanted it any other way. With Glo, it was family first...always!

The last time I talked to her was on her last birthday, and we were both looking forward to getting together again as soon as it was safe to do so. Her favorite spot to have lunch with Randolph friends was The Patio on Pat Booker. Alas, we never had enough time to talk...our mutual friend Jennifer can say Amen to that!

On one of my last outings with Gloria, we went to The Coming King Sculpture Prayer Garden in Kerrville. This was on the National Day of Prayer 2019. It was my honor and privilege to take her there and share that amazing spiritual experience with her. She was overjoyed to be there with my Bible Study group, Daughters of the King. Glo, you are now in the presence of our King of Kings and Lord of Lords. Keep interceding for us, now that you are in glory with Bud.

I will always love you, Glo! ~Jeanie Spence

“ I will always remember Gloria for the countless hours she and Bud gave to mentor and teach myself and others in the Pathfinder club. Her kind and gentle ways and the patience she had for young people will never be forgotten. My thoughts and prayers for her loving family.
Rest In Peace Gloria, the next voice you will hear will be Jesus calling you home.

So happy you shared this photo. This was taken at one of our lunch outings at The Patio to celebrate Glo's birthday. Glo was always a fashion plate! We were amazed the flowers matched her outfit perfectly. :-) “Gloria was a wonderful sister-in-law, a loyal friend, a faithful prayer warrior, a proud and loving mother and grandmother and one of the most care and generous persons I have ever know. She was a blessing to so many because of her unselfish investment of herself in others. Her smile, special laughter and unique sense of humor and all that she was and STILL IS...will be sorely missed. God bless you dear Friend and may your enjoy you reunión with all your loved ones in our Father’s House! See you soon! So sorry I can’t be there to celebrate your life and homegoing with your precious family. Love you.

“I’m so incredibly thankful to have met Gloria at AFMAA in July 2006! She had since become Grandma Glo to my girls & always was sure to ask how Jason (my hubby) was doing too. I’ll be forever grateful for out many shared lunch dates even after Gloria retired! She had the best hugs, loved Snoopy, and enjoyed my affection for Trisha Yearwood. She will be missed for sure but thankful she has been reunited with Bud, her forever love. ❤️ Continued prayers for both the Williams & Trevino families.

Another lunch with Glo! Thanks for sharing, Jennifer. Can't remember if this was an Italian or Mexican restaurant, but it was not too far from Glo's house.

“ Every now and again, you run into an angel on this earth. Gloria was one of those angels- -she was forever kind and never did I see her say a cross word.

The world would be a better place if more were like her.

God called her home. She's with her husband now, and in the fullness of time, we shall meet again.

My deepest condolences to her family and friends.

“Gloria was such a sweet soul. I was so blessed to meet her on my first day at AFMA. As I entered Bldg. 592, there was sweet, smiling Gloria who enveloped me in a big welcoming hug. She loved Jesus, anything patriotic, and the color purple. Her memory is in my heart forever. I know her star is one of the brightest in heaven. Heartfelt sympathy to the family.

“On behalf of my children and myself, we want to send our deepest condolences to the family of Gloria Williams. She was such a kind and loving person. Always positive and confident. She and Bud helped my children get a Christian education. And she always asked me to sing Amazing Grace when the occasion called for it. Now we await for the Lord's return to see her again. We will miss her terribly. Love and hugs to the family!

“ Gloria was such a sweet, kind lady. I worked with her and no matter what the day might bring, she always had a smile. She found out I liked teddy bears and bought a coffee mug with bears on it for me. Every time I have coffee from it, I think about her. I miss her here on earth but I know that heaven is rejoicing.
