“ My deepest condolences to the Molina family. Gonzo was a good friend of mine. I worked with him at his shop , I helped him clean his shop wash the towels and had them ready for Tuesday when he opened his shop. The last time I spoke to gonzo was back in late October 2018 he sounded so well and happy to hear from me. The month of November when I was told about his passing I was in awe, I could not believe it. I found out the hard way . An acquaintance that works where I work asked me if I knew a gonzo and I said yes . Of course not knowing at the time it was gonzo I knew. When she told me it was he I just froze. To this day I think of him and still can't believe he's gone. May u rest in peace gonzo.

“To all the Molina and Garcia family,

Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time. Trust in god as he will help you get through this. May god comfort you and allow you to remember all the great memories each of you may have had with Gonzo. God called another angel home and now he is in paradise with our Lord and Savior.

God bless you all your cousin,

Marcela & Rudy Rivera daughter of Ruth Hernandez
