“ My most sincere condolences to my cousins with the loss of Chela. My earliest memories of Chela were of a strong and confident woman who was also kind and generous. In today's world she and her family were my family's host as they graciously opened their home when we moved to SA from Eagle Pass and transitioned/acclimated. In my eyes she was always the epitome of grace and self strength. May your beautiful soul rejoice in our Lord's loving presence and may your reunion with your loved ones in heaven be all you dreamed of ❤️ Rest in eternal peace and thank you!
