

Graciela Guerra Vargas

March 10, 1934 - February 14, 2025

Graciela Guerra Vargas (1934-2025)

Graciela Guerra Vargas (“Chela”), a beacon of strength and dignity, passed away to be with our Lord on February 14, 2025, at the age of 90. Born in the picturesque town of Boquete, Chiriqui, Panama to Maximo Guerra and Felicitas Rovira, she lived a life rich in family, love, and cherished traditions.

A matriarch in the truest sense, Graciela's quiet presence commanded respect wherever she went. She took particular joy in gathering her family around the dominoes table, where her competitive spirit and skillful play became legendary among her loved ones. Her greatest happiness came from celebrating holidays, birthdays, and special occasions surrounded by the generations of family she helped nurture.

Graciela was preceded in death by her beloved daughter Maria Teresa Gill (Glenn). She leaves behind a legacy of love through her children: Alma Rosa Guerra Garcia (Salome), Hector Guerra, Emperatriz Vargas, Felicitas Malaszowski, Dr. Delia Meyer (Robb), and Diana Brown (Derrek). Her family tree continues to flourish with 18 grandchildren, 31 great-grandchildren, and 10 great-great-grandchildren. She is also survived by 6 of her 8 siblings and numerous nieces and nephews who cherished her dearly.

Those who knew her will remember Graciela as the epitome of class, strength, and dignity - qualities she demonstrated throughout her remarkable life. Her graceful presence and loving spirit will be deeply missed but forever remembered by all who had the privilege of knowing her.

“ This is one of my favorite pictures of my mother. My sister and I were just chatting, and Mom was relaxed and enjoying our company. I looked over at her and she looked so stunning and happy, that I asked her not to move so I could take a picture. In her usual kindness, she consented and held her pose. And, oh, how she laughed afterward. She loved the picture, too. My mom is my greatest treasure and I will miss her everyday of my remaining life. Her smile, her laugh, her voice, and her humor will live on in my memories. I love you so much, Mamasan. I am so proud you were my mommy. You blessed me with a fine example of strength and perseverance. And you were so beautiful! Until I see you again. I love you forever.
