“ I had the blessing of befriending Larry as the volunteer Chaplain at Franklin Park. His warm smile was always welcoming and he greeted me with his sense of humor by way of a joke just about every time we visited. We've had conversations on many subjects and I believe he was released of some burdens he had been carrying. I look forward to seeing him again and picking up where we left off.

I pray for each of you as you mourn the separation from Larry and am sorry for the pain in mourning.
