Gregoria, or Maggie, as family and friends called her, was a dedicated mother, grandmother, aunt, sister, and friend. She was a woman of many talents. Maggie was a natural with a sewing machine, yarn, and everything crafty. She used her love for crafting to bless others with beautiful pieces and she eagerly passed on those skills to her children and grandchildren. Maggie enjoyed thrift stores and flea markets and loved finding practical goods or fun little trinkets. One of Maggie's favorite past times was tending to her plants. She would proudly show off her colorful flowers and garden décor, often surrounded by ceramic frogs.

Maggie enjoyed listening to conjunto music with her sisters that would take them back to the days of their youth and always led to fun, long and lively conversations. She also enjoyed hymns on her radio from a Spanish Christian station that encouraged her and drew her closer to her Savior Jesus Christ.

Maggie wanted good for her family and prayed for them fervently. She was always willing to go the extra mile without a word of complaint. She was quick to forgive and quick to love. Her family will miss her dearly and their lives will be altered by her departure, but she has gained the presence of the Lord and is seeing Him face to face. Hallelujah what a Savior!

“ I have sooo many pictures and memories of you. I miss your sweet smile and the many memories of our talks, the "Golden Girls" sleepovers we had at my house...even our road trip together, just me and you, to surprise my grandma/Frances. I love you and hold you in my heart, along with the many things you gave that I hold dear. Give my mom a hug from me and dance with the angels. I love you Aunt Mage --Victoria
