

Gregorio G. Flores

September 7, 1932 - May 13, 2018

Gregorio G. Flores age 85, of San Antonio left us with his legacy of his songs and he is now serenading for the Lord as of Sunday, May 13, 2018.

“Goyo” lived an adventurous life; he sang with notable stars in Mexico and in the U.S. He emigrated Nueva Rosita, Coah, Mexico and launched a successful career of music, car and insurance sales. He planted the roots for what is now the “Flores Familia” which spans, Texas, California, Chicago, Connecticut, Mexico, Brazil and Italy. He had a passion of singing to his wife, Josefina who was his biggest fan. This passion became a gift of voice and style making “Goyo” friends around the world; from the gondolas of Italy, the waterfalls of Brazil and the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mexico City. He was preceded in death by his son, Carlos. He is survived by his wife of 65 years, Josefina; his children, Gregorio and wife, Cindy, Ricardo and wife, Sonia, Rosantina and husband, Mark and Gerardo; grandchildren, Bianca, Robert, Ricardo, Crystal and her husband, Abel, Carlos, Rebecca, Catalina and husband, Greg, Clayton, Antonio, Alexandra, James, Adam, Elizabeth, Andrew and Tom; great grandchildren, Leah, Cole, Cedrick, Eve, Ian, Emma and Luke; and his sister, Irma Sarabia.

“ To my Tia Fina and cousins, When I heard the news I was very saddened, I loved my Tio Goyo, I loved hearing him sing, I loved talking to him, I respected him, he was for me a special joy, He took me back to a time when you just knew in your heart that you were with family, he was a reminder of my father and Tio Oscar, someone who was just plain honest, loving and always there if you needed him. I'm very sorry for your loss. I will miss him very much. Love always, Rick V.
