

Guadalupe G. Almaguer

December 8, 1940 - April 2, 2025

Guadalupe G. Almaguer, loving mother, sister, and grandmother embraced God on April 2, 2025, in San Antonio, Texas, at the age of 84. She is survived by her children, Marla Ricondo (Michael), Elizabeth Lindsey, Cynthia Almaraz (Ralph), and David Almaguer; her siblings, Esmeralda Leal, Rosa Garza, and Juan Garza; and grandchildren Larisa Lindsey, and Christa Ricondo.

She was the heart of our family. Although she was quiet, you immediately felt her warmth and kindness. She was Momo to everyone. She had a passion for cooking and baking and we will all miss those tamales and cookies. She was loved by all and will be deeply missed by everyone who knew her.

“ Aunt Lupe was a gentle soul and a beautiful member of the Almaguer family. She kept her cooking traditions alive and I can thank my fond memories of making tamales with my cousins to Aunt Lupe, Momo and Aunt Kimo. May she rest in peace with all those who have passed in the Almaguer family. All of my cousins and family members are in my thoughts during this time of grief. I’m grateful to have seen Aunt Lupe at my son’s baby shower last summer. I’m so sorry we won’t be able to attend services. I love you all. -Leylan
