“ I've known the Camacho family all my life. My parents were best friends. Mr. Camacho and my dad Guadalupe Reyes would have a jam session practically every weekend or holiday. They both played the guitar, accordion and sang. Our mothers would always sing along and drink. I am sure I still have cassette tapes of their songs. Mr. Camacho outlived my parents and his wife. He was a funny man, full of energy and youthful spirit. Now he can play all those songs for the Lord, along with my dad.
