

Guadalupe Hernandez

April 12, 1967 - December 7, 2022

Guadalupe Hernandez went to be with the Lord on December 7, 2022. She was born on April 12, 1967, in Carrizo Springs, TX. She is preceded in death by her parents Raul and Melchora Hernandez and Gloria H. Espinoza. She is survived by her sisters Brenda Hernandez (Sandra Gonzaba), Yolanda Espinoza and Jennifer Espinoza; nieces and nephews Jose Gonzales, Gloria Ann Espinoza, Joleen Nicole Gonzales, Katyrina Jade McConnell; great nephew Armando Victor Jimenez, loving partner of many years, Johnny Kelley and numerous family members and friends.

Lupe grew up in Crystal City, TX where she attended school through middle school. She moved to San Antonio, TX with her family in 1981 and attended and graduated from Phyllis Wheatley High School. She played clarinet in the band and participated in many band and school related activities. She traveled to many competitions with the Eagle Band and made lifelong friendships and beautiful memories.

She cared for her parents during long illnesses; and raised her two youngest sisters after her mothers passing. She became like a second mother to many of her sisters' friends and remained close to many as they grew and had their own kids. Lupe absolutely adored her nephew Victorino and spent countless hours with him playing, singing and dancing. She was creative and always had projects in progress. She made jewelry, sewed, put together costumes for the kids. She loved helping and being surrounded by people and made friendships wherever she went throughout her life.

She will be deeply missed by those who knew and loved her.
