“ My heart goes out to all of you kids, the loss of a mother is very hard, I know the feeling, treasure all your moments and never let the grandchildren forget who she is, all the great grandchildren always tell stories of her they will feel like they'd known her, the ones that are too little to remember, I did not know your parents but I would like to thank them for giving me the pleasure to become friends with Becky and Roland and other members of the family that I know, may you rest in peace and I hope you get to meet my mother up in heaven. Love hugs kisses and prayers to your family.
