Guadalupe Lupe F. Monge, born July 8, 1922, celebrated her 93rd birthday on Wednesday and on this same day went on to be with our lord and savior Jesus Christ.

Lupe was preceded in death by her husband, Juan C. Monge. Her survivors are her daughter, Martha Olvera and husband Hector, her sons, Juan Monge and wife Teresa, David Monge and wife Rosalie, Ruben Monge, and Sammy Monge and wife Shirley. Her grandchildren are Hector Olvera Jr. and wife Natalie, Isaac Olvera, David Monge Jr., Alesa Monge, Samuel Monge, Bianca Jorgensen and husband Phillip and Jonathan Monge. She had one great-granddaughter, Elizabeth Monge daughter of David Monge Jr.

Lupe was the oldest of her siblings. She was preceded in death by Fermin Fuentes, Gilbert Fuentes, Juan Fuentes, Able Fuentes, Roque Fuentes and Sonny Wilson. Her survivors are Eva Robertson, Ralph Fuentes and Rebecca Fuentes.

She was an active member of the Primera Iglesia Cristiana on 1501 Guadalupe St. She was a faithful member of the choir. She was a devoted children's Sunday School teacher. She was an active member in the Sociedad Femenil Dorcas within the church. She also was active in La Unida Hispanic Church Women United. Through this organization she visited many Nursing Homes ministering to the elderly. She also participated in visiting and comforting women whose military husbands were in the hospital. She used the talents and abilities God had given her for his service. God used her to provide comfort, direction and encouragement to people in need, He brought her way.
