“ Jennifer and Family.

I know that no words can truly ease the sorrow of losing your mom, but I pray that God's presence surrounds you with deep comfort and strength in the days to come.

I feel truly blessed to have met your mom just a few months ago. That moment was a gift. It's one I'll always treasure. Her warmth, and gentle spirit left a lasting impression on me.

May the love she poured into your life and the light she carried continue to shine through all of you. And may the peace of God, surround you and heal you too.

With Love, Randy
