This video was beautiful but during The middle of Maggie's speech the video froze 🙄. I keep trying and can't get it back on.

I saw the funeral on the big screen outside the funeral home and it was wonderful. I did see the slide show also. The pictures brought back a lot of great memories. I love you Ramon family. I loved Tio Lupe like he was my own dad. I will miss him so much. I hope to see you all again when we can so I can hug all of you. Love Blanca

“ My husband, Joel, and I were deeply moved as we watched Tio Lupe's funeral service, as it was live-streamed, yesterday. July 25th, from Mission Park South Funeral Home. We were honored to send a red, white, and blue spray of flowers for his home-going service. We send our love to our Tia Cookie, and all of our cousins, and are praying that the Lord send His comfort to you all, today.

“ I worked with Lupe while I was assigned to AFMPC and remember him as having the patience of Job during PC-III installs and he always had a ready smile for everyone. I didn't know Lupe was retired Air Force, he was a dedicated civil servant when I worked with him. I knew his name was Lupe but he was always the dignified "Mister Ramon" to me. Slow salute brother may Jesus protect and comfort those you loved until you can be together again.
