

Guadalupe Vara

November 15, 1944 - December 13, 2020

Guadalupe “Wally” Vara, 76, passed away on December 13, 2020 in San Antonio, Texas. Wally was born on November 15, 1944 in Gonzales, Texas to Refugio Vara Sr. and Maria Luna. He is survived by his loving wife of 36 years, Martha “Marty” Coy; daughters, Kathleen Rodriguez, Cynthia Miller (Eric), Diana Roach (Dwayne), Barbara Jean (Jeremy); sons, Andrew Vara (Paul), Guadalupe Vara, Jr. (Martha); sisters, Gloria Martinez, Adella Saucedo, Adelia “PeeWee” Stapleton; brothers, Daniel Nunez (Barbara), Ernest Luna (Robyn), Freddy Luna (Mary), Raul Vara (Elvia), David Arrellano, Donald Arrellano, Steven Arrellano; 22 grandchildren; and 20 great-grandchildren.

Wally spent 30+ years working as a hair stylist in San Antonio. He enjoyed every sport: basketball (GO SPURS!!!), football, (Dallas Cowboys), San Antonio Missions, and of course remote controlling daily with Jerry Springer. And let’s not forget wrestling. He had to watch wrestling. No matter where you knew Wally from, there were a lot of jokes and laughter. He even married Marty on April Fools Day, Vegas style (and that’s no kidding). Wally loved his pets: Schwinn, Lucy, Lady, Paint, Rudy, Teddy and of course, Sonny, aka Handsome. Wally’s goal was to make people smile and laugh. Wally loved his children, grandchildren and felt blessed by the many great grand children.

you are the light of my life and I'm internally grateful for all the happy times you've given to us here on earth. God has called upon you to enter the gates of heaven. I thank him for giving me the most amazing memory that will be with me for a lifetime. On December 18, 2017 I got married to my very best friend and who better to share that moment with than you, you sang for us as I would think was a beautiful wedding gift (you sang us a beautiful Song). This is extremely emotional to me because on the exact same day we got married we wouldn't have thought that it was going to be the exact same day we would have to lay you down to rest. I just want to say that we will be celebrating both occasion and we will love you unconditionally. Rest In Peace my beautiful Angel “ Talking and sharing with family was always something dad did. He always joked and smiled and did his best to make everyone around happy. Some jokes were corny but it didn't matter it was the reason behind it.
