

Gustavia F. Griffith

January 24, 1932 - November 30, 2016

Mom's work here is done; but her actions will long be embraced by those whose heavy hearts she lightened, and by those who knew the love of as pure a Christian woman as any I've ever known. There's a poem called "High Flight" about a fighter pilot who propelled his aircraft into the skies and touched the face of God. Much like that fighter pilot, mom has slipped the surly bonds that tied her physical body to this earth. But, unlike the pilot who must come down again, Mom is in the Presence of God and will dwell with Him forever! Our loss is HER gain.
