To the Strong, Brave and Loving Dominguez Family. Thank you for web casting Gus's rosary. It means an incredible amount to witness the outpouring of love and talent and music for Gus, even all the way out here in Los Angeles. I wish I could be there to see him one more time and hug you guys. The last memory I have of Gus, aka Steven Segal, is just from 2 years ago! My life partner, my parents and brothers, ended up at some super cool, downtown, historically protected, outdoor space where you could get cold brews, listen to fantastic, live Tejano music and daaaaance. Well, my husband is not one for dancing but I am! So i went out there solita and who shows up to help me look less lonely? GUS. We caught up on all things San Antonio as he publicly out-danced me, laughed about Macias and Dominguez family memories, and he most especially beamed when he told me all about the joy and pride he felt for his wife and children. How very lucky we are to have had him brighten our time on this spinning rock. May God, the universe, and each moment, bring you peace and sunlit days as you find your new cadence in life. Gustavo is there in all your thoughts and hearts and star touched skies. Rest in peace, Gus. And GO KNIGHTS, GO! In Sincere Sympathy and Warm Love, Valeria Macias (Holy Cross Cheerleader for life), my husband, Jason Dorris and The ENTIRE Macias Family.

“ I remember when he came to put something in my attic because there were some possums. After a couple of days, the house stunk so bad, I had to get him to come back and get these dead animals out of the attic. We were laughing so much about this. Marian F Rubio

What I most truly loved about Gus is his spirituality. It is evident that his love for Holy Cross and the Brothers is what made him so legendary. I will always treasure our time together, whether at a football game or the softball tournament. My only regret was not playing basketball against him. How his classmates and the school will miss him. May our Lord bless and comfort the family during this time of grief.

“ My sister and I were saddened to learn of Gus' passing. Our deepest sympathy to his family. We hope that you all can take comfort in knowing how many friends and acquaintances Gus had and how we all will miss him. He would spend time with us after doing his pest control telling us some funny stories. Gus was a special man who loved his family and life. Sincerely, Althea Carson and Mary Jane Carson

“ I was surprised to hear, when I did, that Gus had been in the hospital for 2+ weeks. Then later, I learned of Gus' passing. It's hard to comprehend that you are now gone Gus.

Gus & I met, long before Amanda and Xavier came along, at the archery range, and quickly became friends. That friendship grew from acquaintances, to close, lifelong friends. Although not known by many, we were asked to be Amanda's Godparents but we were denied by the church. Gus then tried to get me to be Amanda's Godfather, but that request was denied as well. We were denied by the priest, both times, because we were not Catholic. That's how close Gus & I were.

We enjoyed getting together many times, at his house and or mine, going hunting together, and just visiting with each other. We sure had some good times.

Gus, you will definitely be missed by us and many others. Rest in peace buddy.

We know that he lives now forever and we WILL see him again, but the loss of his physical presence now is painful for all who knew and loved him. It seems that he was a wonderful Christian man whom I wish I had met. God bless you and all of his family as you grieve.

“ MY BROTHER GUS

Oh My Brother Gus, so good a person you were! So special you made us feel and so grand to hear your soft voice when you praised our Loving Lord!

Oh, how we will miss your unselfish ways and your unselfish smile but you will exist within our hearts and within our souls. So live on My Brother Gus, live on!

"My Brother" is what we called each other since we both knew that the Almighty is our true and only Father. So quick you were to offer the Word of Jesus to those seeking the Will and Ways of God. So easy for you to say His Words.

How perfectly you praised our Savior's name before we nourished our bodies, so humbly you prayed for the healing of the sick and for all those in need. Yes! So Devine to hear your voice say the Lord's Words so even those nearby could not resist to be blessed.

Ahh, you never forgot your family and friends, so beautifully you spoke your love for them, so beautifully you mentioned each by name: Frances, Guillermo and Bertha, Nicholas, Amanda and Ray, Xavier, Guillermo and Anita, Ms. Marta, Carlos and Cynthia and your friends Salvador, Grover, Bob and Johnny, but really there's so many who will carry your name for all Mankind!

My Brother Gus, you will live till the end of time and through eternity since it is the Will of God that we all exist and it is the faithful like you that share His Bliss.

To the Pearly Gates you will go and walk the Roads of Gold and meet the Creator of this World. What a wondrous time it will be when we all meet to rejoice and be surrounded by everlasting peace, love and worship.
