“ *Charlene,
I have been praying for you and your family and friends. You are constantly on my mind as I think about what you have endured this past few days. Please take comfort in knowing that so many grieve with you. They feel your pain and we all wish we could make it better for you and your family. I know Kurt was waiting to receive his baby girl in Heaven and they are together watching over you and your children. Although I don't know the great loss you feel completely, I too know how empty and lost you feel. I know that one day it will get easier.. but for now the pain and sorrow is too real to bare.*

“ I love Hayley with all my heart. I'm so sorry for your loss and pain. I wish I could make it better and turn back the hands of time. Haley was so beautiful, cute and fun loving in all her ways. She always made me smile and her hugs were priceless. She felt just like a granddaughter to me. She has the most beautiful smile and she was always so full of life. I know that my words cannot take away this loss. All I can say is I love all of you so much with all my heart.

“ There are no words I can offer you that will make this any better. All I can say is that I know that Haley is up with her daddy looking down on you every day. Her daddy was there to welcome her and present her with her wings. She is your Angel and always will. I can't even imagine the pain you are feeling, even though I am 1200 miles away I will light a candle on Monday during her services to honor her and celebrate the beautiful life that she had even as short as it was. She will be truly missed and loved by many. God Bless you and your family.
