

Harlan G. Breit

December 11, 1922 - December 23, 2006

Harlan G. Breit passed away on December 23, 2006 at the age of 84. He was a Printer at Kelly AFB for many years prior to his retirement. Mr. Breit was preceded in death by his loving wife, Thelma M. Breit. He is survived by his daughters, Gene Freed and husband Butch, Linda Brunson and husband Jim, Shelley Jones and husband John; son, Martin Breit and wife Nancy; six grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

SERVICES

A visitation will be held from 7:00 - 9:00 PM on Thursday, December 28, 2006 at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North. A chapel service will be held at 9:00 AM on Friday, December 29, 2006 at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North with interment to follow at Ft. Sam Houston National Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be sent to Vitas Hospice at 5430 Fredericksburg Rd. Suite 200, San Antonio, TX 78229.

Tribute Wall

DR

“ We remember the many years we lived next to you and our kids playing in both yards. Mike still recalls Harlan letting him do somethings in his shops. With warm thoughts of you \\\"kids\\\" Dean & Mary E

Dean & Mary Ellen Reynolds - December 31, 2006 at 12:00 AM

BB

“ One of the highlights of the past couple of years was a visit with Harlan and Robbie. Sue and I went out to lunch with them and shared many memories including Harlan\\'s taking Bill to Bandera for the first time on a camping trip in 1944 when Bill was a

Bill and Sue Breit - December 27, 2006 at 12:00 AM