

Harold Edger Coggeshall

November 10, 1916 - June 22, 2004

Harold E. Coggeshall went to be with the Lord on June 22, 2004 at the age of 87. He was born on November 10, 1916 in San Antonio, Texas. Harold is survived by his wife of 65 years, Doris Mae Coggeshall and three children, Kenneth Wayne Coggeshall and his wife JoAnne, Joyce Ann Coggeshall Fanelli and her husband Joe, and Betty Jean Coggeshall Hoge and her husband Bob. He was blessed with seven grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren. The oldest of seven children, Harold is survived by his sister, Doris Ruth Smith of El Paso, Texas, his brother Charles and wife Janice of Grapevine, Texas and his youngest brother Roy and wife Mary of Denton, Texas. When Harold entered rest on June 22, he was welcomed by his mother Katy, his father Edgar, and his three beloved sisters Peggy, Kathryn, and Merle. After graduating from high school in Harper, Texas, Harold moved to San Antonio where he met Doris Mae Bean, the love of his life, and began a 25 year career in the wheel aligning business. He retired at age 55, and took his bride traveling all over the the country in his "long green" camping trailer. Although retired, he never stopped fixing things until the day he passed away. The Coggeshall Family joins together in thanking God for Harold's 87 years with us, and in celebrating a life well lived. He did it his way.
