

Harold W. Souther, Jr.

April 2, 1938 - February 3, 2006

Harold W. Souther Jr. was born on April 2, 1938 and went to be with the Lord on February 3, 2006. Harold was a loving teacher to many elementary children. He taught children to be caring, as well as giving, to the less fortunate. He strived to awaken the presence of God in their lives. He was a loving and caring spouse, father, grandfather, friend and colleague who strove to find a balance between work, family relationships and friendships. He treasured his close friends. He was a person of high energy who was always sharing with others. Harold trusted God's unconditional love and believed he was "The beloved child of God." He valued integrity, honesty and friendships. He was a very giving person, of self, as well as of material goods. You only had to call him and he would be there. He will be greatly missed because wherever he went, that place was better for his having been there. He served in the USAF for 22 years before entering a career in teaching, which he retired from after 17 years. He leaves behind his wife Maria of 37 years, three daughters: Halana Diane Salazar, Christina Souther-Bruno, and Teresa Ann Castaneda; four grandchildren: Shea Nicholas Salazar, Aubrey Margaret Balsamo, Kyle William Souther-Bruno and Ramon Bradley Bruno III; sons in law: John Mark Salazar, Ramon Bruno and Charles Castaneda; sisters: Barbara Hughes and Diane Fulstone and Robert Reynolds stepfather of Yerington, Nevada, and brother, Larry Reynolds of Winnemucca, Nevada. Preceding him are his parents Harold W. Souther Sr. and Margaret Reynolds.

SERVICES
