

Harriet Weyel

July 6, 1941 - July 15, 2008

Harriet Weyel

Harriet Weyel was born in San Antonio, Texas on July 6, 1941. She was the second child and first daughter of Harry James Weyel and Mary Virginia Veatch Weyel. She passed away on July 15, 2008 having just attained 67 years of life.

Harriet was preceded in death by both of her parents and by her nephew William Weyel. She is survived by her brothers: Harry James Weyel, Jr and wife Patricia; Robert Griffin Weyel; Carl Randall Weyel and wife Connie; Richard Boyd Weyel; and her sister Helen Diane Brown and husband Theodore. She is also survived by six nieces, five nephews, and numerous great nieces and nephews.

Harriet is loved by many who have known, worked with, and benefited from her kindness and love during her journey through life. She was employed by Dunn & Bradstreet for more than 38 years during which time her devotion to her company and clients earned the respect and admiration of her colleagues.

She loved children and devoted much of her life to caring for children of family, friends, and the less fortunate. This love was manifest in a myriad of ways including gifts of toys, knitting work, trips to fun places, and most importantly her time.

Harriet's love for children found its greatest fulfillment in her relationship with the Ronald McDonald House charities. Beginning with the illness and death of her nephew Willie, Harriet actively assisted the Ronald McDonald house in San Antonio. She was a regular volunteer and weekend manager for the downtown house for more than 15 years, and upon her retirement she began full-time employment as resident manager at the Medical Center house.

Harriet was an avid reader whose tastes ranged from sci-fi, history, mysteries and everything in between. She was always full of arcane facts and interesting comments to fit any conversation.

Other key interests included: knitting, cooking & baking, baseball NY Yankees, history, and family.

Her family requests that in lieu of flowers memorial contributions be sent to the Ronald McDonald House charities.

“ As the only other left-handed member of the Alamo Rows Crochet Guild, I will miss Harriet greatly. I learned a lot from Harriet both in crochet & life. I hope to be with her again someday as she has surely gone to be with her God.

“ I'm very sorry for your loss, I didn't know Harriet, but as we have the same family name I'm sure we are related in some way. Please except my deepest condolences...my Daddy was Harry Eugene Weyel....Barbie
