“ Dear Mrs. Boggus

A friend called me about the death of Harry. I wanted to send our prayers and sympathy to you and the family. My family knew Harry in the late 50s and early 60's. We were at Protestant Children's home together. My two brothers and Ha

“ I can't say that I knew Harry really well, but when we saw each other, we enjoyed one another's company.

I will always appreciate his warmth, his generosity and, especially, his stories. He truly was a kind of modern-day Pecos Bill, with tales of the
