“ Harvey was such a gentle giant. Always with a smile on his face. Never refusing to help anyone in need. He was a great supervisor, and it was a great pleasure to work for him. He always gave me so much support and kindness. Sending prayers and love to his family. May he rest in God's Glory.

“ My deepest condolences on your loss, Harvey was a work colleague from the old days. I work in St Louis, but he was always easy to communicate with and great to work with, a good man. May you find peace.

“ I first met Harvey after I joined GHQ TIRKS Staff in early 1983. We quickly became friends. With Harvey, how could you not. We spent much time working on problems together. He became a source that I relied on. We also spent a lot of time talking personal issues over meals. Harvey became a support to me concerning my disabled wife. I would like to think that I was able to return some of that when he lost Carla. After retirement life took us in different directions but I can honestly say that I often thought about him. He was a wonderful individual.
