HALFORD

Hayward Lee Halford, Sr., loving father and grandfather went to be with his Lord at 11:54 pm Sunday, May 4, 2008. He was born on August 29, 1921 to Mary and Charles Halford in Udall, Mo. Hayward graduated in 1947 from the University of Missouri at Columbia with dual degrees in Chemistry and Mathematics. While attending college, he met and later married the love of his life, his wife of 50 years, Frances LaRue. They were blessed with two children, son Hayward Halford, Jr, and daughter Susan. Hayward worked first as a Chemical Engineer then as an Environmental Engineer for Mobil Oil for 35 years, retiring in 1983. After retirement, he and Fran moved to San Antonio and traveled extensively before her illness. They were active members of Trinity Baptist Church of San Antonio where Hayward taught Sunday school classes; and later joined First Baptist Church of Boerne. One of Hayward's passions was golf which he played and watched with relish. Hayward is preceded in death by his wife, Fran in May of 1999; parents Mary and Charlie; and brothers James and Gene. He is survived by his son Hayward and his wife Sheri of Fair Oaks Ranch, Tx; his daughter Susan Guinn of Alpharetta, Ga; his granddaughters, Kelli Gill, Hayley Halford, Sara Guinn, and Rachel Halford; four nieces and several great nieces and great nephews and many, many friends.
