

Hazel Davis Earnest

January 10, 1922 - March 18, 2006

Hazel Davis Perkins Earnest, born on January 10, 1922 in Goosecreek, Texas, passed away on March 18, 2006 in San Antonio, Texas. She was a School Secretary with the N.E.I.S.D. for many years, dedicating her time to the educational needs of children. Hazel was a very loving and caring person who always put others' needs before her own. She was literally an "angel on earth" and will be dearly missed by everyone who knew and loved her. Hazel was preceded in death by her loving husband, Capt. Elmer William Earnest; her parents', Julia Davis and Luther Perkins; sister, Maxie Melancon; daughter, Elaine Lone Earnest; and son, Leroy Earnest. She is survived by her daughters, Beverly Earnest of San Antonio and Linda Cervantes and husband, Carlos of Bulverde, TX; son, Wayne Earnest and wife, Sherri of San Antonio; sister, Lone Guirard of St. Martinville, La; grandchildren, Aaron, Brandon, Hannah, Kimberly; and numerous nieces and nephews.
