“ Aunt Marie was a very special loving and giving person. She was always ready to lend a hand whenever it was needed. She loved her family and animals. They were so very dear to her heart.

Sam,
My thought and prayers are with you and your family.

“ Dear Sam and family,
We are saddened to hear of Marie's passing but know she is in that Better Place. Don't you know those Rosamond girls have Heaven laughing and singing? Marie was the family's caring "historian" and collection center for family news.
