“ Looking back at my visits in the Metheny home, I remember a petite, glamorous woman who painted intriguing western scenes on small canvases in her living room and happily tolerated her daughter's many slumber parties of giggling young girls. Your mother

“ Perry, Paula, Candy and Travis, I am very sorry for your loss. When I saw your mother's photo, I remembered spending so much time in your home, making doughnuts using biscuits, and watching late night scary movies, while Perry and Travis picked on us. M
