

Hazel Lorena Parks

March 16, 1927 - July 24, 2018

HAZEL LORENA PARKS was born March 16, 1927 in Milwaukee, WI to Harold Edward and Daisy Lorena (Swiger) Millard, who preceded her in death. Her Brother Harold preceded her in death. Survived by her sister Helen Grace Schattschneider of Milwaukee, WI

She was married to Charles Dyas, until he passed away after a long illness. They had three children: Fred Dyas, Jeffrey Dyas, and Cheryl Dyas Daskalos. All are deceased. There are six grandchildren, two great grandchildren, four step-children, ten step-grandchildren, and ten step great grandchildren.

Hazel and Phillip Parks were married in Bossier City, LA on April 7, 1978. She graduated from LA Tech University, Ruston, LA with a degree in Speech and Hearing Therapy and a Master's in Elementary Education. She taught Grades 1-8 who had learning disabilities in Bossier Parrish Hazel retired in 1987, but taught at Bossier Parish Jr. College on a part time until 1991.

She make two 6 week trips to Rome with the LA Tech Summer program, which included side trips to Greece, France, Germany, Austria and Switzerland. We traveled all over Israel in February with a Church Group, and after that she always said the Bible was in living color.

Hazel loved quilting and had the honor of a quilt being selected to hang in the American Quilter's Society's Quilt Show in 1991. Quite an honor since only 450 quilts in the world are selected. Her first try at that level did not win, but was happy to be selected.

She had many hobbies, but her Heart was for the Lord, as Sunday School

Teacher, and Choir Singing.

Graveside services will be held at 9:45 AM on Monday, July 30, 2018 at Ft. Sam Houston National Cemetery.

Cemetery Details

Ft. Sam Houston National Cemetery

1520 Harry Wurzbach
San Antonio, TX 78209

Previous Events

Graveside Service

JUL 30. 9:45 AM (CT)

Ft. Sam Houston National Cemetery
1520 Harry Wurzbach
San Antonio, TX 78209