Hector Morales Martinez

March 22, 1937 – May 12, 2025

Hector Morales Martinez, beloved husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle, and friend, passed away peacefully at home on Monday, May 12, 2025, surrounded by those who loved him most. He was 88 years old.

Born in San Antonio, Texas, on March 22, 1937, Hector was the eldest of five siblings born to Ernestina and Roque Martinez. From a young age, he was charismatic and kind—a natural storyteller who made everyone feel seen and heard. He had a gift for conversation and an unforgettable sense of humor, often laughing at his jokes just as hard as everyone else. He was the kind of person who would give you the shirt off his back and never hesitate to help others in need.

Throughout his life, Hector embodied devotion to his country and his family. At the age of 18, Hector joined the United States Air Force and proudly served for 20 years as a flight engineer. He retired in 1975 with the rank of Technical Sergeant. Shortly after his military retirement, he would continue to serve his country as a civil servant, eventually retiring again in 2002. Soon after retiring from the military, Hector met the love of his life, Margaret Caballero, on October 31, 1975. Their connection was instant and lasting—they were married on January 29, 1977, and remained inseparable for 48 years. Margaret was his best friend, his partner, and his heart.

Hector was the epitome of love and devotion. He was a proud and dedicated father to Javier and Monica, and adored his granddaughters, Lucia and Luna. He cherished every moment spent with his family, especially camping, vacationing, fishing, working on cars, and visiting lakes and rivers. His life was built around family, laughter, and creating lasting memories. Nothing made him happier than time spent with family, especially when it was filled with laughter.

He is survived by his loving wife, Margaret Caballero Martinez; son Javier Martinez; daughter Monica Martinez; his treasured granddaughters, Lucia and Luna Martinez; his brother, Gilbert Martinez; his sister, Grace De la Cruz, and numerous nieces and nephews who were blessed by his presence.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Ernestina and Roque Martinez; his sister, Alice Olvera; and his brother, Ben Martinez.

To know Hector was to experience warmth, laughter, generosity, and strength. His legacy lives on in the love he poured into his family and in the countless lives he touched. His memory will remain a guiding light and a lasting treasure.
