“ My deepest sympathies to Lydia and family. Hector and I are old friends from Cotulla and I have known Lydia since she and Hector starting going together. Hector had a 49 or 50 Chevy and we used to put 50 cents (gas was about 15 cents) (that was all the money we could scrap up) in the car and go to Pearsall. Hector would go out with Lydia and I would go out with Lydia's friend. Many good memories. Hector as a good man and a good friend.

“ My sincere condolences to Lydia, Jesse, Liz and Angelica and all of their extended family members. I will always remember him as a very hard working and dedicated family man when I was growing up and enjoyed talking with him whenever we got to see you all. All of the Ortiz family will miss him and he will always have a place in our hearts.

“ I am deeply sorry for your loss, I am Hector's cousin. As a child I remember Hector visiting my mother Guadalupe Navarro and us at the Mirasoles Courts. I remember thinking how big and tall he was I had never seen anyone so tall in my young life. I told Hector later in life that I called him our giant cousin. He had such a sweet spirit and awesome smile. My condolences to his wife Lydia and children.
