Hector Juan Palacios

January 12, 1935 – February 22, 2018. A man of distinction, Hector Juan Palacios, peacefully passed to his reward surrounded by his loved ones. Born in Crystal City, TX to a migrant family, Hector's early life began by learning to take care of himself. This instilled a life-long instinct to keep family close and develop a strong work ethic. As a Marine, he faithfully served his country in the Korean War, always a proud patriot. He met Dominga Peña in 1953 at The Malthouse and married in 1957. They were inseparable and devoted to each other and their 4 children, Maria, Jesse, Eddie and Trisha, 6 grandchildren and a great-grandchild. Hector worked for the City of San Antonio for 35 years and coached CYO baseball for many seasons. He loved to vacation with family on long car trips to Vegas, West and East Coasts, camping, and coastal fishing. Semper Fi Daddy!
