“ When my dad would drop me off at grandma's, every two or three days she would push me down the sidewalk and onto the street to HEB, Handy Andy, Winns, the hairdresser, to play bingo at Highlands Social Club and off we went! Snowball would follow us for a few miles and when Grandma would say "Snowball Go Home", She would listen after a few yells. She would carry groceries all the way from the store and push me back to her house.
