

Helen Hill Armstrong

November 14, 1934 - July 27, 2024

Helen Marie Thompson was born in Austin Texas to Mr. Israel Thompson. and Ms. Willie Lee Thompson on November 14, 1934.

While in Austin, she attended school and completed her secondary education. Helen confessed Christ and was baptized at an early age, remaining a faithful and devoted servant throughout her life.

In 1964 she united in holy matrimony to Curtis Armstrong, who precedes her in death. Through their loving union, they cared for her children: Larry Hill, Ray Hill Jr., Leonard Hill, Beverly Hill and the late Joyce Beckett.

Helen is remembered as an empathetic, open, hospitable, joyful, and generous woman. She was fiercely protective of her children and deeply committed to her family and her role as a wife. Helen found happiness in the joy of others, often engaging in heartfelt conversations and warmly welcoming everyone into her home, always leaving the doors open for family and friends. To her children, she instilled the values of patience and tolerance. Beyond her home, Helen honorably served her community as a caregiver until her retirement in 2010.

Helen is preceded in death by siblings: Bobby Nell Thompson, Israel Thompson Jr., Nathan Thompson, Theo Thompson, L.J Thompson, Lorenzo

Thompson, Lee Edward Thompson, Odell Thompson and Michael Thompson and daughter, Joyce Beckett.

She leaves to cherish her siblings, Margaret Raven, Harold (Carlotta), Mildred, William (Bill) Thompson (Leona) and her loving children, Larry Hill, Ray Hill Jr., Leonard Hill and Beverly Hill and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

“ Condolence to the Hill/Armstrong Families. Mrs. Hill was a mother to all of the children who visited her home. Always loving, and caring about others. She never raised her voice, but you knew she meant just what she said.

I thank God for allowing me to share the times I had with her. Covid-19 slowed everything down. The last time I sit and talked to Mrs. Hill she told me she understood. I visit with Mrs. Hill for two hours, and enjoyed our time together. I were very blessed to have Mrs. Hill in my life. Mrs. Hill would give me guidance, and encouragement, and I loved her for being such a wonderful, and loving mother too all of the children who spent time at her home. Rest in Peace Mother Hill. I love you, and will miss our conversations.

God bless your family.
