“ Sincere condolences to the Geyer family for the loss of their beloved Mother. How do you express the words for the loss of a friend you've held dear to your heart for 42 year? I thank God he left Mrs. Geyer on this earth for 96 amazing years, but we still weren't ready to let her go. It took me at least ten years to call Mr. & Mrs. Geyer by their first names. Mr. Bill insisting first, and then Helen scolding me if I didn't. Everyone has a beautiful Helen story to tell and words of love an admiration. While we've had a million conversations on the porch swings and sitting in her livingroom since I was 18 years old, the last two are ones I'll cherrish the most.

The last in person visit was on KW parade day in Apri 2020, when we decided to have our own parade since the "Official" was cancelled. We had kazoos, yard decorations and I surprised her with a vintage car parade that was solely for her. (She was astonded that the car group would take the efforts to drive back and forth by her house, so that she didn't miss ONE year of KW parades.) We laughed and joked through our masks and ended the day with an "I love you". (A few days after her passing, I surprisingly found the kazoos in the pockets of a jacket I had wore that day.)

June was the last time we spoke, as she was the first person to call me when my Ex-husband passed away. Two weeks later a voicemail to wish me a happy birthday. She was... and still is a "forever" friend, one who you thank God above for the memories (even through the tears).

How do you say goodbye, you don't.
Helen, I'll love you always.
Aloha, A hui hou. (Till we meet again.)

“ My childhood years have special memories of Helen and Bill and their children.. from her walking us home from school, playing in the “train” room, watching Mickey Mouse club, bunco parties, making mud pies in the lot next door and so many more. She was a special friend of my mom up until my mom’s death in 2005. My mother always said there were two ways to do things and one was always “Helen’s way”. Beautiful memories of a beautiful women who made my childhood better.

“ My wife, Ann, & I have fond memories of Helen. We recall her gracious generosity when we attended the King William Parade over the past several years. Helen would set out trays of food like tamales and dips for a brunch on folding tables in her front yard. Helen had a light of joy in her eyes. There was a definite kindness of spirit about her. We regret that due to the pandemic we won't be there in person Saturday to celebrate her life. Know that we treasure her memory as she was such a friend to our Aunt Vicky and Cousin Carolyn throughout their years. We hold all of you in our prayers.

“ Our family has wonderful memories of the gracious lady who lived across the street from our Aunt Vicky. Helen was always welcoming, starting when we were kids playing with her kids in the vacant lot next door to when I was taking my grown up children and grandkids to watch the King Williams Parade each April with her and my cousin, Carolyn.

May the angels rejoice and welcome her into paradise.

ME

Helen and her late husband exemplified why it's so wonderful to live in King William. Helen was always friendly and hospitable, especially to the neighborhood children. I've spent many happy times on her front porch. My sympathy to her family(she mentioned you often) and my condolences for the loss of a special soul.
