“ Anne, thank you for being like a sister to me since you and I and Don and Robbie became bowling partners back in 1985. I will never forget that you were there for me when Don passed away. I will miss you calling me almost every night. Pat and I feel incomplete without our third musketeer. You are one of the most caring and most generous person I have ever met. I love you and I will never forget you!

“ Anne, you were the woman every woman strives to be like. You were always so generous, loving and kind. I miss you already but know you are out of pain and with Robbie. You were so loved and admired by everyone who knew you. You never had a mean word to say about anyone. You are one in a million. Love you, Inez
